To all to whom these presents shall come.

WHEREAS by an act passed the fourth day of August in this present year, entitled, "An act making provision for the debt of the United States," it is among other things enacted, that the President of the United States, be authorized to cause to be borrowed on behalf of the United States, a sum or sums not exceeding in the whole twelve millions of dollars, and that so much of that sum as may be necessary to discharge the said arrears and installments, and (if it can be effected upon terms advantageous to the United States) to the paying of the whole of said foreign debt, be appropriated solely to those purposes; and that the President be moreover further authorized to cause to be made such other contracts respecting the said debt as shall be found for the interest of the said States; provided, nevertheless, that no engagement nor contract shall be entered into, which shall preclude the United States from reimbursing any sum or sums borrowed within fifteen years after the same shall have been lent or advanced.

And whereas by another act, passed the twelfth day of August in the present year entitled, "An act making provision for the reduction of the public debt," it is also among other things enacted, that the President of the United States be authorized to cause to be borrowed on behalf of the United States a sum or sums not exceeding in the whole two millions of dollars, at an interest not exceeding five per cent. And whereas, by virtue of the said several acts, the President of the United States of America, hath been pleased by a certain commission or warrant under his hand to authorize and empower the secretary of the Treasury for the time being by himself or any other person or persons, to borrow on behalf of the United States, within the said States, or elsewhere, a sum or sums, not exceeding in the whole fourteen millions of dollars, and to make or cause to be made for that purpose such contract or contracts as shall be necessary and for the interest of the said States, subject to the restrictions and limitations in the said several acts contained.

Now, therefore, know ye, that I, Alexander Hamilton, Secretary of the treasury of the United States for the time being, by virtue of the said commission, power or warrant of the President of the United States of America, have authorized and empowered, and by these presents do authorize and empower William Short charge des affaires of the United States at the court of France, to borrow on behalf of the United States in any part of Europe, a sum or sums, not exceeding in the whole fourteen millions of dollars, and to make or cause to be made for that purpose such contract or contracts as shall be necessary, and for the interest of the said States; subject to the restrictions and limitations in the said several acts contained; and for so doing this shall be his sufficient warrant. In testimony whereof, I have caused the seal of the treasury to be affixed to these presents, and have hereunto subscribed my hand the first day of September in the year of our Lord

NEWBURY PORT, May 17.

Yesterday arrived here the ship Mary, Capt. Steward, in 49 days from Oporto, by whom we learn, That an action had happened near the mouth of the Straights, between a Danish frigate and four Algerine cruizers, in which three of those pirates were sunk, the other escaped. That the government of Portugal were resolved never to comply with the terms of peace, prescribed by the Dey of Algiers, as less money than he demands, would support a fleet sufficient effectually to restrain them from any further depredations. That it was reported, the Portuguese had invited America and Hambargh to join them in equipping a fleet for repelling and chastising those lawless desperadoes.

BOSTON, May 11.

In let. 35, long. 65, 25, Captain I. spoke a brig from Lisbon, for North Carolina, capt. Henderson, out 42 days, who informed, that the Portuguese had manned their ships and had gone against the Algerines, and the Spaniards had acknowledged the FRENCH REPUBLIC, and would join them.

NEW-YORK, May 28.

Via Lisbon, and Bolton, and by private letters from London, dated April 8, Spain is said to have officially acknowledged the INDEPENDENCE of France!!!

WHITESTOWN, May 14.

The following may be depended on as fact: Some boatmen were proceeding with a boat load of salt and other articles, valued at 60l. from the Onondago salt spring, to Niagara. While passing fort Oswego, a detachment of British forces, stationed at that place, seized the boat and cargo, and condemned them as a legal prize. The owner of the property seized, obtained information that a boat was dispatched from Niagara, some time since, to Schenectady, on the Mohock river, by the subjects of his Britannic majesty, for articles to a considerable amount. Exasperated at his snafu at fort Oswego, he raised a party of men, and proceeded to the three river points, where they came across the boat belonging to Niagara, on its return, with a cargo valued at upwards of three hundred pounds, which they seized upon as a reprisal of the property taken from them at fort Oswego.

We hear further, that the banks of the rivers to the westward, are lined with privateers, in wait for boats bound to Niagara, and other British settlements, which they are determined to detain, not only as reprisals, but as violations of the embargo laid upon all vessels in the ports and harbors of the United States.

INDIAN NEWS.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman at Greenville, dated 4th July 1794.
"On the morning of the 30th ultimo, the effort of convoy under Maj. M'Mahan were attacked under the walls of fort Recovery, by upwards of one thousand, say about fifteen hundred Indians, who also assaulted that fort in every direction, but were repulsed with great slaughter; they again renewed the attack, but at a more respectable distance, keeping a very heavy and constant fire all that day, and by intervals during the night and morning of the first instant, but were ultimately compelled to retreat between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock of that day, with loss and disgrace, from the very field where they had on a former occasion been proudly victorious.

"We lost 21 men killed, and had 29 wounded during the action; among the former, we have to lament the death of the gallant Maj. M'Mahan, the brave Capt. Hartthorne, Lieut. Craig and Cornet Tomy; amongst the latter the incredible Capt. Taylor of Dragoons and Lieut. Drake of the Infantry. "In the course of the action upwards of two hundred horses were killed or taken; but certain it is, a considerable number were in possession of the enemy, loaded with dead horses.

"It does not appear that the enemy could possibly have received any information of this effort, their object was to carry fort Recovery by a coup de main. Major Wells, who has since reconnoitred the ground the Indians occupied on the day and night preceeding the action, and is decidedly of opinion, that the enemy had double the number of warriors in the assault on the 30th ult. that they had in the action of the 4th of November 1791."

The following melancholy accident happened the first instant at Shelbyville, and communicated to us by a gentleman who left that place on the fifth.

A difference happened between Maj. Shannon and Mr. Felte, and an affray took place, in which Maj. Shannon stabbed Mr. Felte in the breast with a dirk, of which wound he expired within half an hour after he received it. After receiving the wound, Mr. Felte threw a stone at Maj. Shannon, which struck him on the head and fractured his skull. An inflammation took place, and his life was despaired of when the gentleman left that place, being then speechless.—We since learn that he died on Monday last.

From a Baltimore paper of May 23.

Captain Flinn in the snow Eleeby, who arrived at Philadelphia, in 30 days from Oporto, brings the following very important intelligence.

"Portugal had declared war against Algiers." Captain Flinn left the town of Oporto, 10th April, but was delayed two days at the bar.—The 12th April, the morning he sailed, an express arrived to Mr. Brown, the Vice Consul, from Mr. Church, our Consul at Lisbon, saying the demand made by the Dey of Algiers was so enormous, the queen had refused to pay it. And that in consequence, several frigates had failed for their old station, the mouth of the Straights. Mr. Brown sent the letter received from Mr. Church, which Captain Flinn read, as well as Captain M'Cullum, of the Catherine, of Philadelphia; Captain Swett, of the Mary, Bolton; Captain Farley, of the Befsey, do. Who all failed in company with him. The letters received by Captain Flinn, are not later than the 9th of April, make no mention of war declared, but generally agree it may be daily expected.

Captain Flinn was boarded by boarded by the Hope privateer of Bermuda—who after examining his papers, behaved very civilly and left him.

By the brig Mary, Capt. Haley, arrived at New-York, in 43 days from Brest, we have received the following intelligence:

About the 23d of March an engagement took place between the French and Spanish armies, which ended in a signal victory on the side of the Republicans; in this action, gloriou for the cause of liberty, upwards of 6000 of the slaves of the despotic monarch bit the dust.

Valenciennes and Conde were actually retaken before capt. Haley failed.

Victory has also crowned their efforts against Spain, and many many of her towns are now in their possession. In addition to all this, we are positively assured not a village of the rebel army is left; having almost to a man paid the forfeit of their heinous crime.

At sea, success has equally favored their struggles; several of the Cork fleet, and 20 valuable ships from the Straights, bound to London, had changed their course, and entered different French ports, with inverted colors.

Provisions at Brest, and in every town in France, were very plenty; and an important stroke was meditating against England; eight line of battle ships, with several transports, had sailed for Jersey and Guernsey, and had no doubt of becoming masters of those two islands. The Brest fleet consisted of 55 sail of the line.

Capt. Bompard has got the command of a 74 gun ship.

DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

For Bourbon County.

Paris, June 16, 1794.

Mr. James Smith, from the committee of correspondence, presented a copy of fundry resolutions, of a numerous meeting of respectable citizens from different parts of the State, assembled at Lexington the 24th day of May last, tending to adopt measures for obtaining the use of the river Mississippi, and the reduction of the polls on the Western waters now occupied by the British; also a copy of a Remonstrance to the President and Congress of the United States, on the subjects contained in the Resolutions. And the said Resolutions and Remonstrance being read, and some time taken up in deliberating upon each of them separately; Resolved unanimously, that the society do approve of all and each of the said Resolutions, and Remonstrance.

Resolved, that the members of society respectively, do recommend it to the citizens of this county, to meet at the Court-house thereof, on Thursday the 19th inst. to take the said Resolutions and Remonstrance into consideration; and that Messrs. John Allen, Thomas Jones, James Smith and Richard Henderson be appointed to present and read the said Resolutions, and Remonstrance to the people, and to take their voice on the same; and if they are approved of, to recommend it to the people, to elect two men in the bounds of every militia company in this county, to meet at the Court-house thereof, as a county committee, agreeable to the 13th Resolution.

Extract from the minutes

JOHN BOYD, S. C.

A very great number of the citizens of Bourbon county, met at the Court-house on the 19th inst. when the Resolutions of the meeting at Lexington, (May 24th) were read and approved, the Remonstrance was signed; and two men chosen out of the bounds of each militia company, to constitute a county committee. It is hoped that the citizens of this State in the other counties, will follow the example, as nothing of moment can be effected, but by the joint deliberations, and united exertions of the whole; and as this is a time when every exertion ought to be made for the obtaining our just right, THE FREE NAVIGATION OF THE RIVER MISSISSIPPI.

A CAUTION

To the Public.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in the year 1789, I, the subscriber, Jacob Ish, of Nelson county, Kentucky, agreed, and purchased of Peter Kerns, of said county, in Kentucky, two hundred acres of Land, lying in said Nelson county, Kentucky, about five miles from Bairdstown; for which land I gave him my note of hand for Forty Pounds, due about May 1791:—Also, a power of Attorney to collect my patrimonial share of my deceased father (Peter Ish's estate)—Also, a bill sale to secure the same to the said Peter Kerns. The said estate was left to me in Greenwood county, Juniata, and Packstone county, both in Pennsylvania; and Peter Kerns gave a bond for the conveyance: But in a few months afterwards, the said Peter Kerns and myself agreed to dissolve our contract, and I gave him up his bond of conveyance that he gave to me; and the said Peter Kerns not having the power of attorney, bill of sale, or note by him, at that time, they were not given up to me, neither have I received them since.

The said Peter Kerns has also, a note of hand of mine, for four saddles, which was given in barter for horses; but we agreed afterwards to exchange the horses back again: he, not having the note by him, it was not given up, nor has he delivered it to me according to contract.

Therefore, I do forewarn all persons from taking an assignment on the above mentioned two notes, for I will not pay them, or any part thereof, as I never received any satisfaction for either of them.

I do also, forewarn any person or persons from taking any power or assignment of the said bill of sale, from the said Peter Kerns:—And I do forbid and forewarn the Administrator of my father (Peter Ish's estate) not to pay away my patrimonial share of said estate to the above mentioned Peter Kerns, or any other person, by virtue of any power given by me before this date, as I have not received any satisfaction for the same.
